

Umano's mission is to support initiatives that foster holistic empathy for humans, animals, and the environment. We achieve our mission by providing funding and training to help changemakers build holistically empathic initiatives that are financially resilient and impactful.

Umano's online Film Festival takes place once a year, the inaugural event being held on December 5, 2021. The Film Festival provides a platform for storytellers to inspire empathy for humans, animals, and the environment through short films.

What you'll be doing

- Review a selection of short films in one of the following categories: fiction, non-fiction, animation, or student
- Judge the films based on criteria including: quality of screenplay (story, dialogue, character arcs, etc.), illustrating theme, acting, production quality, originality, technical proficiency, cinematography, sound design, editing, location(s) used and set design
- Submit score and comments through FilmFreeway on a timely basis

What you bring to the team

- Experience in filmmaking
- Belief in the importance of empathy for humans, animals, and the environment
- An interest in the role that films can play in changing behaviour

What's in it for you

- Volunteer from home
- Flexible hours (approximately 8-10 hours over four months)
- Warm and empathic culture
- Knowing that you're making an impact in the world

If you are interested in volunteering for this role, please complete our online volunteer application form at <https://www.umano.org/volunteer/>.

For other ways to support the work we do, please reach out to us at vinyse@umano.org.